

~ ANTICIPATED POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT ~

Assistant/Associate Professor in the Department of Counselor Education

Starting Date: August 2016

Position Description: The ASU Department of Counselor Education is seeking faculty members for three tenure-track positions in a dynamic and productive CACREP accredited Counseling Program. We are seeking generalists in Counselor Education who can teach a wide variety of courses across the CACREP core areas as well as specialty courses and within the doctoral program. Responsibilities will include teaching, advising and mentoring graduate students in the on-campus, Online Plus and doctoral programs. In addition, the successful candidates will supervise graduate student fieldwork experiences, participate in departmental and campus committees, collaborate with fellow faculty to promote the development of the doctoral program, maintain active membership in professional organizations, and demonstrate initiative to engage in scholarship. Some travel, evening, weekend, and on-line course delivery required. Hard work, cultural sensitivity, initiative, flexibility, commitment to authentic professional interaction and a sense of humor valued!

Qualifications:

1. Doctorate in Counselor Education. ABD considered.
2. Demonstrate the dedication to teaching excellence.
3. Active participation in professional organizations.
4. Demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively with academic departments, community agencies, and public schools.
5. Show a record of professional scholarship and achievement.
6. Teaching experience preferred and familiarity with on-line course delivery desirable.
7. Eligibility as a Licensed Professional Counselor or School Counselor in Colorado preferred.
8. Ability to perform the duties in the position description.

Preference will be given to those applicants who can:

1. Support faculty and student research training initiatives around methodological components of research. Includes consulting, mentoring and collaborating with graduate students and faculty in the Counselor Education Department.
2. Conduct academic quality review of research prospectuses, proposals and dissertations.

3. Facilitate the IRB process supporting research.

Rank, Salary, and Benefits: Appointment at the assistant/associate professor level. Base salary is commensurate with rank and experience. Opportunities for supplemental contracts are available. Adams State University offers an excellent benefits package.

Applications:

Completed applications must include:

1. Letter of application addressing qualifications.
2. Current curriculum vita with unofficial transcripts (official transcripts required before on campus interview)
3. Names and contact information for three references
