

Two Possible Tenure-Track Positions

Kutztown University, Counseling & Student Affairs Department

The Counseling and Student Affairs Department at Kutztown University anticipates two full-time, tenure track counselor education positions in the clinical mental health and school programs. to start the 2016-2017 academic year. Kutztown University of Pennsylvania enrolls approximately 10,000 students in graduate and undergraduate programs. The university is located in the Borough of Kutztown in a charming, rural setting and is within 20 minutes driving time from the diverse metropolitan areas of Allentown/Bethlehem and Reading, and approximately an hour's drive from the Philadelphia metropolitan area. The university is very interested in hiring employees who have extensive experience with diverse populations.

The department of Counseling and Student Affairs at Kutztown University is seeking candidates with terminal degree in Counselor Education or counseling-related field (candidates considered with conferral of degree within one year of hire), evidence of scholarly activity, teaching experience, applicable counseling license/ certificate, within field professional experience, and familiarity with CACREP standards.

Kutztown University of Pennsylvania is an affirmative action/ equal opportunity employer and actively solicits applications from women and minority candidates. Kutztown University of Pennsylvania is a member of the State System of Higher Education.