

The Counseling program at Montclair State University is pleased to announce our open rank faculty position. We are specifically seeking candidates with expertise to contribute to our Addictions Counseling program, which we intend to submit for CACREP accreditation review next year. Our other three master's programs in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, School Counseling, and Student Affairs in Higher Education are all currently CACREP accredited and our PhD program is under review. Please see full position announcement below.

DATE August 2015
TITLE/RANK Counselor Education, Addictions Counseling/Open Rank
DEPARTMENT Counseling and Educational Leadership

DESCRIPTION

The Department of Counseling and Educational Leadership is seeking an accomplished scholar for a tenure-track position in a vibrant department and growing university. Appointment includes teaching and advising master's degree students in School Counseling (CACREP Accredited), Clinical Mental Health Counseling (CACREP Accredited), Student Affairs in Higher Education (CACREP Accredited), and Addictions Counseling with emphasis on the latter. Applicant may also teach, advise, and mentor students in the thriving doctoral program in Counselor Education, which emphasizes advanced training in Teaching/Pedagogy, Research, Leadership, and Counseling Practice. Faculty members are expected to be active scholars; advise students; contribute to accreditation processes; participate in department, college, and university committees; and meet qualifications to teach in a CACREP program.

QUALIFICATIONS

Required: Earned doctorate in Counselor Education or related field; if doctorate not in Counselor Education, experience as a full-time faculty member in a Counselor Education program; a well-defined research agenda, evidence of scholarly activities, and a record of publications appropriate for the rank sought. Experience in and evidence of excellence in teaching courses in addictions. Preferred: Experience and/or licensure/certification as a practicing counselor. Experience using digital technologies to enhance teaching and learning, including teaching online. Senior faculty experience, including chairing of dissertations and advisory committees. The department and the College of Education and Human Services are committed to student and faculty diversity and value the educational benefits that derive from such diversity. We are seeking candidates who demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively in and with socially, culturally, and economically diverse communities; have a commitment to education for social justice, democratic practice, and critical thinking; and are interested in addressing issues of diversity, justice, and health equity in their research and teaching.

SALARY RANGE Salary dependent upon qualifications.
