

Pending Approval: Position Announcement

Assistant/Associate Professor (Counselor Education)

Department of Counseling, Quantitative Methods, and Special Education

College of Education and Human Services

Description of Position: One Assistant/Associate Professor (tenure track) position specializing in Counselor Education

Responsibilities:

- Provide instruction to MSED and PhD students in counselor education with emphases in one or more of the following: marriage, couple, and family counseling, and group counseling. The assignments will include course instruction, supervision of practicum, and supervision of student research.
- Advise graduate students in counselor education and serve on MS and PhD degree committees.
- Maintain a record of scholarly productivity by initiating research leading to publication in national peer-reviewed journals.
- Serve as academic unit leader for the Marriage, Couple, and Family track, duties of which include coordination of practicum and internship placement, compliance with relevant professional accreditation and state licensure boards such as Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) and Illinois Division of Professional Regulation, including yearly maintenance of records and assessment, and active engagement as program-community liaison.
- Participate in professional associations and activities to enhance professional development of counselors at the local, state, and national levels.
- Seek and secure external funds to sponsor research, training, and service activities.
- Serve the public and constituencies of the department, college, and university as approved/assigned.

Requirements of Candidates:

- At either rank hold a doctoral degree in counselor education and supervision. Preference will be given to applicants who hold a degree from a CACREP-accredited program, or have been employed as full-time faculty members in a counselor education program for a minimum of one full academic year before July 1, 2013.
- Hold a license or be eligible for licensure as a LPC, LCPC, or LMFT in the state of Illinois.
- Assistant Professor: Requires evidence of the potential for scholarly research that leads to publication in nationally refereed journals. Applicants who have completed all requirements except the dissertation will be considered. If official evidence of completion of the earned doctorate requirements is not received by August 12, 2016, the position offered will be a term appointment at the rank of Instructor at a lower salary.
Associate Professor: Requires substantial evidence supporting excellence in teaching, professional service, and scholarly productivity with publications in national/international refereed journals and presentations at national and international conferences, consistent with departmental and college criteria for appointment at rank of Associate Professor.
- Preference will be given to applicants with: (a) post-master's experience in marriage, couple, and family counseling or group counseling or a combination thereof, (b) clinical experience and ability to contribute to other specialty areas within the program, (c) demonstrated awareness of issues affecting diverse populations, (d) membership in ACA and its affiliated organizations, and (e) experience or interest in developing distance education through on-line/hybrid formats.

- Preference will be given to candidates who have had prior university teaching experience at either the undergraduate or graduate level or both.
- Preference will be given to candidates who have had the experience or can demonstrate the potential for developing extramural funding for research projects.
- Illinois state law requires oral proficiency in the English language.

Appointment and Salary:

These are continuing tenure-track appointments. Appointment is on a nine-month academic year basis. An additional summer appointment may be possible contingent upon funding and student demand. Salary and rank are commensurate with experience and background. Progress in rank and salary will require demonstrations of productivity in research, publication, teaching, and service.

Effective Date of Employment: August 16, 2016

Deadline for Application: November 15, 2015, or until filled.

Application:

A complete application must include: 1) a letter of application; 2) a curriculum vita; 3) transcript of highest degree earned; 4) three current letters of professional reference, 5) evidence of teaching skill; and 5) copies of scholarly works/publications.

Address application materials to:

Dr. Carl R. Flowers, Interim Chair
Department of Counseling, Quantitative Methods, and Special Education
Wham 223 / Mail Code 4618
Southern Illinois University Carbondale
625 Wham Drive
Carbondale, Illinois 62901

email: cflowers@siu.edu

web address: <http://ehs.siu.edu/epse/>

Electronic materials will be accepted.

SIUC is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer of individuals with disabilities and protected veterans that strives to enhance its ability to develop a diverse faculty and staff and to increase its potential to serve a diverse student population. All applications are welcomed and encouraged and will receive consideration.