

UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA

PEMBROKE

Assistant Professor for Counseling

The University of North Carolina at Pembroke School of Education seeks a qualified candidate for a tenure track faculty position in Counselor Education at the Assistant Professor level, beginning January, 2016. The successful candidate will teach graduate level counseling courses in the Department of Educational Leadership and Counseling. Classes are held in the evenings and offered in face to face, hybrid, and online formats. Additional responsibilities include student advisement and mentoring, serving on program, department, and university committees, service to the community, and scholarly activity. The Department offers two CACREP accredited graduate degrees in counseling: Clinical Mental Health Counseling and Professional School Counseling. The Department includes an active, dynamic faculty and serves a diverse student population.

Rank is open and depends on the qualifications and achievements of the candidate, but no higher than the rank currently held at another university. Appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor is preferred.

Minimum Training and Education Requirements: An earned doctorate in Counselor Education and Supervision from a CACREP accredited program; licensure as a professional counselor in North Carolina or licensure eligible at time of employment; and experience with graduate teaching and supervision. Preference will be given to applicants with clinical experience, licensure, and scholarship in addictions counseling.

Management Preference: Prior teaching experience in higher education is preferred.

Special Instructions to Applicants: Applicants should apply online at <https://jobs.uncp.edu> and provide a cover letter, vitae, and three letters of reference.

This position is subject to the successful completion of an employment background check. An employment background check includes a criminal background check, employment verification, reference checks, license verification (if applicable) and credit history check (if applicable).

If hired, the candidate will be required to submit proof of eligibility to work in the United States. New employees are paid only by direct deposit to the financial institution of their choice. Candidates claiming Veterans Preference must attach a copy of their DD-214 as a part of the online application process.

Per the requirements of the Clery Act of 1998, the Campus Security Report can be found at: <http://www.uncp.edu/police/report/>
