Position Announcement/Description

COUNSELOR EDUCATION

The Position

The Virginia Tech School of Education is seeking a colleague to join us in the Counselor Education Program to contribute to our vision of preparing professional counselors and leaders in the counseling field. We invite applications for an Assistant Professor in Counselor Education position, in our CACREP-accredited program, located in Blacksburg, VA. The position is a tenure-track, academic year appointment with opportunities for summer session employment. The standard teaching load is four courses per academic year. Candidates must demonstrate a strong potential for scholarly productivity, as the successful candidate will be expected to develop and conduct research resulting in publications in peer-reviewed scholarly journals. The successful candidate will be responsible for instruction, clinical supervision, and advising of master's and doctoral students. The master's degree program includes School Counseling and Clinical Mental Health Counseling tracks and is located at our Roanoke Center. Roanoke is approximately 45 minutes from the main campus in Blacksburg.

We are seeking a candidate who identifies with the American Counseling Association and abides by the ACA Code of Ethics and the Virginia Tech Principles of Community (<http://www.vt.edu/diversity/poc-doc.pdf>). In addition, a doctorate in counselor education, preferably from a CACREP-accredited program, or core faculty eligibility is required at the time of appointment (August 22, 2016). Experience with and commitment to working with diverse populations is required. An identifiable research agenda and demonstrated ability to write for scholarly publications is required. Experience in seeking and/or securing external funding to support research and programming is preferred. Experience with teaching and with clinical supervision is preferred. Strong preference will be given to candidates who have experience as a professional school counselor. Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Virginia Tech does not discriminate against employees, students, or applicants on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, veteran status, or any other basis protected by law.
